Description: Every baby needs and loves toy blocks. But, wouldn't it be awesome if your baby could play with his or her own personalized blocks? My name is Anya and I run an Etsy shop called 'Koobik,' where you can buy personalized cubes and blocks for your baby. I know I loved playing with my personalized blocks when I was really young! That, and the fact that I am a second generation toymaker, makes me believe that playing with one-of-a-kind toy cubes brings a special kind of joy to a heart. I create personalized baptism and religious blocks, play blocks for toddlers and Valentine's Day blocks for all the adults out there. Each block I create is unique and- thanks to secret organic finish- can last you a lifetime. And best of all- you can even pass them down to your children and their children! All my products are eco-friendly and handmade. To order your own personalized cubes and blocks
